

First Grade February 2017 Goals

Reading – Readers Can Be their Own Teachers, Working Hard to Figure out The Tricky Words and Parts in Books

- Readers remember to use all the strategies they know to solve new or tricky words. They always ask, does it look right? sound right? make sense?
- Readers make sure they always understand their books. They check for meaning as they read.
- Readers make sure they can read longer books and read them with fluency
- Standards L 1.4, RF 1.4c, RF 1.4a, RL 1.3

Writing Workshop- All About Books

- Writers use what they know to teach others
- Writers organize their writing to show their ideas. They include leads and a have a sense of closure
- Writers supply facts and details to teach others

Writing Reviews

- Writers state an opinion
- Writers organize their writing to show their ideas. They include leads and a have a sense of closure
- Writers supply reasons to support their opinion
- Writers use conventions in their writing- they capitalize names and places, use commas in dates and lists, and have capital and end punctuation in sentences

Math

- Count by tens and ones to 120
- Show numbers in different ways
- Model, read, and write numbers to 120
- Understand tens and ones (place value)
- Use place value and properties of operations to add and subtract