

Second Grade Goals for November:

Writing: Non - Fiction

- Students will be able to write Organize information to communicate facts – ideas.
- Students will be able to elaborate in our writing “Who, what, where, when, why, how”
- Students will be able to try new text structures.

Reading:

- Students will be able to read non- fiction to become smarter about things in our world.
- Students will be able to gather information and grow ideas from reading non – fiction.
- Students will be able to see more than text on the pages.
- Students will be able to tackle tricky words in our books.

Math:

- Students will be able to represent and solve problems involving addition and subtraction within 20.
- Students will be able to work with in equal groups of objects to gain foundations for multiplication.
- Students will be able to use place value understanding of operations to add and subtract.